ARTICLE 1: GENERAL

- 1.01 The parties to this Collective Agreement will work to create a positive workplace, dedicated to high quality, cost-effective public services and performance standards, employee, and organizational effectiveness, and to resolving issues fairly and efficiently.

The parties set forth the following terms and conditions relating to employment, remuneration, settlement of disputes, hours of work, employee benefits and related matters affecting employees covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2: DEFINITIONS

- 2.01 In this agreement

- a. "Bargaining Unit" means the group of employees covered by Certification Order IRB-068-17 and is generally referred to as the "Union" herein.
- b. "Emergency" means a present or imminent event in respect of which the Provincial Minister in charge of Public Safety or the Employer, as the case may be believes prompt co-ordination of action or regulation of environment or the health, safety, or welfare of the civil population must be undertaken to protect persons or property, and may include snowstorms, windstorms, freezing rain, sewer or water troubles, floods, power outages, or any act of God or man;
- c. "Employee" means a person who is in the Bargaining Unit.
- d. "Employer" or "Town" means the town of Rothesay.
- e. "Full-time Employee" means a person who works for the Employer on a permanent basis, forty (40) hours a week, fifty-two (52) weeks a year.
- f. "Seasonal Employee" means a person hired on a seasonal basis, works thirty (30) to forty (40) hours per week, and completes a work period of more than eight hundred (800) regular hours in a twelve (12) month period.
- g. "Student Employee" means a bona fide full-time student who works eight hundred (800) regular hours or fewer per year.
- h. "Casual Employee" means a person who is employed on a temporary basis, fewer than eight hundred (800) hours in a twelve (12) month period, to replace absent employees. Should a Casual Employee work more than eight hundred (800) hours in a twelve (12) month period they will be converted to Seasonal status pursuant to the Collective Agreement.

Casual Employees may be scheduled for less than forty (40) hours per week.

There shall be no more than one (1) Casual Employee employed per department without mutual agreement.

Casual Employees are covered by all articles applicable to Seasonal Employees with the exception of:

- Article 26: Group Benefits
- Article 19: Paid Holidays
- Article 21: Sick Pay and Absences

Casuals are paid the rate of the classification they are working in.

- i. "Family care" in Article 22.07 means needed care for an Employee's child (including stepchild), spouse, dependent, parent or any other dependent family member cohabitating with the Employee. Additional reasonable situations may be covered and shall not unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 3: MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3.01 It is understood that management retains all rights not specifically restricted by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4: RECOGNITION

- 4.01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 5369, as the Bargaining Unit consisting of the Employee classifications set out in Schedule A attached hereto and covered by Industrial Relations Board Certificate Order #IR-068-17, except that Student Employees and crossing guards shall not be members of the Bargaining Unit.
- 4.02 No Employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representative which conflicts with the terms of this Collective Agreement.
- 4.03 The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing with the Employer.

ARTICLE 5: NO DISCRIMINATION

- 5.01 The parties agree that there shall be no harassment, discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion that violates the New Brunswick Human Rights Act exercised or practiced with respect to the Union, the Employees, the Employer and its agents. The parties recognize that the Human Rights Act applies to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6: UNION MEMBERSHIP AND CHECK OFF OF UNION DUES

- 6.01 All Employees shall be members of the Union as a condition of employment through the payment of the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required to be paid by all union members.

Any person hired under a provincially or federally funded "make work" project to alleviate unemployment or support members of any disadvantaged group shall not be covered by this Collective Agreement. It is agreed that there will be no displacement of regular Full-time or Seasonal Employees or reduction of their hours of work because of these projects. Workers of said projects shall be informed of the conditions of employment and rules and regulations and safety, and health policies adhered to by the Bargaining Unit. The Union agrees not to withhold the approval of any application submitted for funding a project covered by this Article.

- 6.02 The Employer shall deduct from every Employee in the Bargaining Unit the regular monthly dues uniformly payable by all members of the Union upon receipt of a signed authorization. The signing of such authorization and the deduction of such union dues are conditions of employment. The sums deducted pursuant to this Article shall be remitted to the below noted address of the Union, or shall be remitted electronically, accompanied by a list of the names of those from whose wages the deductions were made and the total of the regular wages paid during the period. This list shall be provided within thirty (30) days of the pay date.

Canadian Union of Public Employees
1325 St. Laurent Blvd.
Ottawa, ON
K1G 0Z7

ARTICLE 7: ACQUAINTING NEW EMPLOYEES

- 7.01 On commencing employment in a position within the Bargaining Unit, the Employer will introduce the new Employees to their elected union representative, as designated by the Union. At the request of the Union, the Employee and elected union representative will be permitted thirty (30) minutes to be scheduled during working hours at a time agreeable to the Employer during which the Union may in private acquaint the Employee with the structure, benefits, and duties of union membership. Where more than one Employee is hired at the same time, the Employer may schedule a thirty (30) minute group orientation session with the elected union representative in lieu of the individual session.
- 7.02 On twenty-four (24) hours' notice, a representative of the National Union will be given access to Employees on the Employer's premises at a time and place arranged by the Employer. Meetings with Employees under this provision shall not interrupt work and shall not extend into paid working time.

ARTICLE 8: CORRESPONDENCE AND BULLETIN BOARDS

- 8.01 All correspondence between the parties arising out of this Agreement shall pass to and from the Chief Administrative Officer and the President of CUPE Local 5369 or such persons designated by each of them to act on their behalf.
- 8.02 The Union shall be notified of the full name, position and employment status (i.e., full-time, part-time, temporary, seasonal, casual), start date and work location of all Employees hired into the Union prior to their first day of employment.
- 8.03 The Employer will provide to the Union at the time of hire the following information about each person hired into the Bargaining Unit: person's name, job title/classification, home mailing address, home telephone number (and other available personal telephone numbers, such as cellular numbers), work e-mail, and, if available, personal e-mail.
- 8.04 The Union will provide three bulletin boards to be mounted in the workplace as mutually agreed with the Employer. These boards shall be for the Union's exclusive use, and the Union shall ensure that anything posted shall not disparage the Employer.
- 8.05 The Employer will provide to the Union a list of all the Employees in the Bargaining Unit. The list will include each person's name, job title/classification, home mailing address, home telephone number (and other available personal telephone numbers, such as cellular numbers), work e-mail, and, if available, personal e-mail.

The list will also indicate the Employee's work site and employment status (such as full-time, part-time, temporary, seasonal, casual), and if the Employee is on a leave of absence, the nature of the leave.

The Employee contact list will be provided in an electronic spreadsheet to the Union contact designated by the Union Executive on a quarterly basis.

ARTICLE 9: LABOUR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 9.01 A Labour-Management Committee shall be established consisting of three (3) representatives of the Union, one from each department and three (3) representatives of the Employer. The Committee shall concern itself with maintaining an effective relationship between the Employer and the Employees in the interest of improved service to the public, interpretation of the Collective Agreement, discussion of contemplated changes in the work environment, training programs for members of the Union and other matters of mutual concern including training programs for members of the Union.
- 9.02 A tentative schedule for all Labour-Management meetings for the year shall be prepared by the employer before the end of January every year.
- 9.03 The Employee representatives shall suffer no loss of regular earnings while attending Labour-Management committee meetings.

- 9.04 The Committee will meet at least once per quarter unless a special meeting is requested by either party. The Committee shall not deal with specific Employee or Union grievances that are being processed under the grievance/arbitration procedure.
- 9.05 The Employer will be responsible for taking minutes of each labour-management meeting; minutes will be approved by both parties and posted on the bulletin board.
- 9.06 The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing with the Employer.
- 9.07 The Employer agrees to provide the Union the use of the Community Room upstairs at the Rothesay Arena for union business, when available, free of charge.

ARTICLE 10: UNION BARGAINING COMMITTEE

- 10.01 A union bargaining committee shall be appointed or elected by Employees in the Bargaining Unit and shall consist of not more than four (4) members of the Union, no more than 2 from any department. The Union will advise the Employer of the names of such members selected reasonably in advance of negotiations.

10.02 Members of the Union's bargaining committee shall be paid for negotiations of the collective agreement up to a maximum of one hundred and sixty (160) hours. If a collective agreement is not achieved within those paid hours, the Employer shall continue to pay the members, and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for the working hours beyond the agreed one hundred and sixty (160) hours.

- 10.03 The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when negotiating or discussing grievances with the Employer. The CUPE representative may visit the work location of Employees in the Union to investigate and assist in the settlement of a grievance but shall not interrupt any Employee's working time unless prior arrangement is made with the Chief Administrative Officer or delegate. The CUPE representative shall notify the Chief Administrative Officer or delegate in advance of any such visit.
- 10.04 The Employer shall provide the Union with copies of employment policies applying to members of the Bargaining Unit.

ARTICLE 11: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 11.01 Representative of the Union - The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of its elected union representatives. Members of the Union have the right to have an elected union representative of their choice in any grievance situation in preparing and presenting their grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure.

11.02 The Employer agrees that if it is necessary to service a grievance during working hours, then the elected union representative shall be permitted reasonable time for that purpose. Elected union representatives will not leave their work during working hours without obtaining authorization from their supervisor prior to scheduling time to service the grievance. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld and the elected union representative shall report back to the supervisor before resuming normal duties.

11.03 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement. Any grievance proceedings must be initiated within ten (10) working days of the initial occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or of the date when the Employee became aware of the occurrence, and if such grievance proceeding is not initiated within this period, then the grievance shall be considered resolved and shall not be processed.

11.04 Settling of Grievances

Informal - An Employee who feels that they have a grievance shall first discuss the matter with their supervisor within two (2) working days of the initial occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or of the date when the Employee became aware of the grievance. The elected union representative may be present if desired by the Employee. The supervisor shall respond within five (5) working days of the discussion.

STEP 1 - Should the Employee not be satisfied with the results of the informal procedure and should the Employee wish to proceed, then the Employee shall submit the grievance in writing within ten (10) working days of the initial occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or of the date when the Employee became aware of the grievance. It shall at this step be submitted to the Employee's department head. A meeting shall be held to be attended by the Employee, the elected union representative, Human Resources and the department head, at which time an earnest attempt shall be made to settle the dispute. The department head shall render a decision within five (5) working days from the date the written grievance is received.

STEP 2 - Should the Employee not be satisfied with the decision of the department head and should the Employee wish to proceed with the grievance, then the grievance shall be submitted in writing within five (5) working days of receipt of the reply of the department head to the Chief Administrative Officer, who shall render their decision within seven (7) working days of receipt of such grievance.

STEP 3 - Failing satisfactory resolution of the matter, then within ten (10) working days of the date of receipt of the reply of the Chief Administrative Officer or the date when the reply was due, the matter may be referred to arbitration.

11.05 Policy Grievance - Where a dispute involves a question of general application or interpretation or layoff, or where the Employer has a grievance, STEP 1 of this Article may be by-passed provided that such grievance is filed within fifteen (15) working days of the initial occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance.

- 11.06 Union May Initiate Grievance - The Union shall have the right to originate a grievance for an Employee or group of Employees and to seek adjustment with the Employer in the manner provided in the grievance procedure. Such a grievance shall commence at STEP 1.
- 11.07 Employer May Initiate Grievance - The Employer shall have the right to originate a grievance with the Union. Such grievances shall be filed with the Union within five (5) working days of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance. The reply of the Union shall be made within five (5) working days of the date of receipt. Should that reply not resolve the grievance, the Employer may proceed to arbitration within thirty (30) working days of receipt of the Union reply.
- 11.08 The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for any grievance meetings.
- 11.09 Supplementary written agreements, if any, shall form part of this Agreement and are subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure provided herein.
- 11.10 For the purpose of time limits in this Article, "working days" denotes days on which the Town Hall is open for normal business. On the failure of the grievor or the Union to process a grievance within the time limit(s) specified, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned.

ARTICLE 12: ARBITRATION

- 12.01 When either Party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made by Registered Mail, addressed to the other Party to the Agreement, and include the name and address of its arbitrator nominee(s). Within ten (10) working days thereafter, the other Party shall answer by Registered Mail.
- 12.02 Failure to Nominate - If the recipient of the notice fails to nominate an arbitrator within ten (10) working days of appointment, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Post-Secondary Education Training and Labour upon the request of either Party.
- 12.03 The Arbitrator may determine their own procedure but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations to it. It shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and render a decision within thirty (30) calendar days from the time the Arbitrator is appointed.
- 12.04 Decision of the Arbitrator - The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on both parties to this Collective Agreement. Notwithstanding this, the Arbitrator shall not have any power to alter, modify or amend any of the provisions of this Collective Agreement. The Arbitrator shall have the power to substitute such other penalty for discharge or discipline as the Arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 12.05 Disagreement on Decision - Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision, either Party may apply to the Arbitrator for clarification of the decision. Such clarification will be rendered as soon as reasonably possible.

- 12.06 Expenses of the Arbitrator - Unless otherwise agreed, each Party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.
- 12.07 Amending of Time Limits - The time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by written agreement of the parties to this Agreement.
- 12.08 The grievor shall be entitled to suffer no loss of regular wages and benefits while attending his/her arbitration hearing. Any Employee of the town called as a witness and one Union representative shall be entitled to suffer no loss of regular wages and benefits while attending the arbitration.

ARTICLE 13: DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION, AND DISCIPLINE

- 13.01 An Employee who has completed their probationary period may be dismissed, but only for just cause. When an Employee is discharged or suspended, they shall be notified in writing promptly by the Employer of the reason(s) for the discharge or suspension.
- 13.02 The lawful dismissal of a probationary Employee shall be deemed to be for just cause.
- a. Subject to Article 13.01 and any other express limitation in this Collective Agreement, probationary Employee shall benefit from the provisions of the Collective Agreement.
 - b. The effective date of any termination of employment during the probationary period shall not be a date that falls beyond the date of the expiration of the probationary period.
- 13.03 An Employee who considers themselves to be suspended or discharged without just cause shall be entitled to file a grievance pursuant to STEP 2 of the grievance procedure. Such grievance shall be filed within ten (10) working days of the date of discipline or termination.
- 13.04 Disciplinary principles
- a. The parties to this Collective Agreement are committed to working together to create a responsive, enthusiastic and respectful work environment, one dedicated to providing quality, cost effective public services; achieving high standards of personal and group performance; and resolving issues constructively and for the common good. To that end, the parties are committed to:
 - i. Creating a workplace that requires Employees and management to demonstrate mutual respect.
 - ii. Building a progressive labour-management relationship that provides the Employer with the opportunity to meet legitimate corporate interest;
 - iii. Maintaining the dignity of Employees;

- iv. Providing support and guidance to those Employee required to improve performance; and
 - v. Providing safeguards against unjust discipline by adhering to a sound discipline policy that encourages self-rehabilitation.
- b. The intent is that discipline should be progressive and begin with a verbal warning, however depending on the seriousness of the offence the Employer reserves the right to administer discipline appropriate and proportionate to the offence.
- c. Subject to the above, the normal pattern for progressive discipline shall be:
- i. A first level reprimand,
 - ii. A second level reprimand,
 - iii. A third level reprimand and one (1) day suspension without pay,
 - iv. A fourth level reprimand and three (3) day suspension without pay,
 - v. Dismissal.
- d. An occurrence of previous discipline shall not be used to support a higher level of discipline of a subsequent offence if twenty-four (24) months have passed without any intervening disciplinary offences. Any month in which the Employee is absent for twenty (20) or more working days shall not count towards this period.
- e. An Employee shall not be dismissed without just cause. In a case of dismissal, the Employee will be notified in writing of the reasons for the dismissal and given the opportunity to meet with Human Resources and Chief Administrative Officer (or their delegates) with the assistance of an elected union representative, if requested, to review the facts outlined in the dismissal letter.
- f. Disciplinary meetings will be held with Human Resources, the Department Head (or delegate), the Employee and the elected union representative. The Employer will provide the Employee a written letter outlining any action taken by the Employer and the reasons for the discipline and will contain the facts on which the Employer relied on in making their decision.

ARTICLE 14: SENIORITY

- 14.01 Seniority is defined as the length of service in the Bargaining Unit. For the purpose of calculating seniority, any period of continuous employment in an occupation or occupations forming part of the Bargaining Unit immediately before the establishment of the Bargaining Unit shall be considered as if it were served within the Bargaining Unit. Length of service shall be defined as time worked since the date of hire and shall include vacations, holidays, and time lost from work due to illness or injury.

- 14.02 The Employer shall post in prominent locations on or about January 31st of each year a seniority list showing:
- a. Date upon which each Employee's service commenced,
 - b. Total seniority as of December 31st of previous year,
 - c. Vacation and accumulated sick pay entitlement as of December 31st of previous year.

The seniority list shall also be sent to the Union.

14.03 Probationary Period

- a. Newly hired Employees shall be on probation from the date of hiring and will not become permanent until they have completed a continuous period of one thousand forty-three (1043) regular hours of work.
- b. Seasonal employees who have completed their probationary period and are offered a full-time position in the department in which they were originally hired will not be required to complete an additional probationary period. Should a seasonal employee be offered a full-time position in another department other than the one of original hire, then they will be required to complete a 6-month probationary period in the new department, so that their skills may be assessed accurately.

14.04 Retention of seniority rights during layoff:

- a. A Full-time Employee shall not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of layoff up to fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks or leave of absence approved by the Employer.
- b. A Seasonal Employee shall not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of layoff up to twenty-eight (28) consecutive weeks or leave of absence approved by the Employer.

14.05 An Employee shall lose their seniority and employment in the event:

- a. The Employee is terminated and is not reinstated.
- b. The Employee resigns, in writing, and does not withdraw or retract his resignation within five (5) working days.
- c. The Employee retires.
- d. The Employee was absent from work for three (3) working days without notification to the Employer and /or without sufficient cause.

- e. The Employee on layoff is notified by Registered Mail that they have been recalled and fails to return to work when not medically unable to so report within five (5) calendar days, or fourteen (14) calendar days if the Employee is required to provide notice to another employer. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address and telephone number.
- f. The Employee has been laid off longer than the maximum time for retention of seniority rights specified in Article 14.05; or
- g. The Employee is absent for twenty-four (24) months or more with no expectation of returning to work in the foreseeable future.

ARTICLE 15: VACANCIES

- 15.01 When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created inside the Bargaining Unit, the Employer shall post notice of the position in key work locations. Outside advertising to fill a position shall not commence until the notice has been posted for a minimum of seven (7) days. Positions shall not be filled without a posting as set out herein. The closing date for receipt of applications from existing Employees shall be seven (7) days following the posting date.
- 15.02 Such notice referred to in Article 15.01 shall contain the following information: duties of position, essential qualifications and educational level required, including knowledge and abilities, skills, normal scheduling pattern (for information only), wage rate and date of posting.
- 15.03 In selecting an individual to fill any Bargaining Unit position, appointment shall be made of the applicant with the greatest seniority and having the required qualifications and ability to perform the work.
- 15.04 If no qualified Employee applies for a posted vacancy, the Employer may at its discretion appoint the senior applicant who does not possess the required essential qualifications but is likely to achieve those qualifications prior to filling the vacancy.
- 15.05 Should Seasonal Employees as defined in Article 1.02 (f) work 1720 or more consecutive regular hours in the Bargaining Unit in a calendar year, the Employer shall recognize the need for another Full-time Employee and shall post for a full-time position. If a Seasonal Employee is retained longer than planned to cover a vacancy or vacancies caused by the temporary absence of a Full-time Employee, hours worked covering a temporary vacancy shall not count towards the regular 1720 hours. The Union shall be notified when Seasonal Employees are retained beyond 1720 hours. If a full-time position is posted under this Article, the senior Seasonal Employee in the affected classification who is willing to become full-time shall be appointed, subject to Article 15.03 of the Collective Agreement.
- 15.06 The Employer shall post the name of the successful applicant on bulletin boards.

- 15.07 Should the Employer decide not to fill an open position or a position that is scheduled to become open (e.g. when an Employee is scheduled to retire), the Employer shall advise the Union of its decision.
- 15.08 Return to former position
- a. If the successful applicant to a posted position is found to be unsuitable or cannot continue in the position for medical reasons within eight (8) weeks of appointment they shall be returned to their former position, wage or salary rate, without loss of seniority. Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to their former position without loss of seniority.
 - b. If the successful applicant notifies the Employer within four (4) weeks of appointment that they feel they cannot continue in the position, the Employer shall permit the successful applicant to return to their former position in the same manner as in (a.) above, in which case the runner-up from the original job bid may be appointed to the position, provided they have the knowledge, skill, and ability to perform the work.
- 15.09 When the Employer wishes to make training available to union employees, it may post notice of the opportunity on bulletin boards showing the nature of the training (subject and materials to be covered), time, location, duration, and prerequisite qualifications. The Employer will select from the applicants for the training based on the likelihood of using the skills or knowledge in their work, and where this is relatively equal, will give preference to senior applicants. Nothing in this provision limits the right of the Employer to require Employees to attend mandatory training.

ARTICLE 16: JOB SECURITY

- 16.01 A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the workforce or a reduction in the regular hours of work as defined in this Agreement.
- 16.02 In the event of a layoff, the Employee(s) with the least seniority in the affected classification shall be displaced from that position. If such displaced Employee possesses the knowledge, ability and skills to perform another Bargaining Unit job in that same department (i.e. Works or Parks and Recreation) held by a junior Employee, the Employer shall assign him or her to the best-paying job to which his seniority may entitle him or her. Displacements may occur in the same manner until an Employee unable to secure a position in that department is laid off.
- 16.03 In the event of amalgamation or regionalization of services, the Employer shall, subject to legal limitations, do everything it reasonably can to ensure the continued job security for persons in the Bargaining Unit who were/are employed by the Employer at the time of such amalgamation or regionalization of services.
- 16.04 Employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority provided they are qualified to perform the work of the position they are being recalled to.

- 16.05 Seasonal Employee shall be given ten (10) working days' notice of layoff, (or pay in lieu) except in cases
- a. When the Employee was notified of his expected layoff date at the time of hire or recall.
 - b. When the Employee was hired or recalled for a specific task, such as (but not limited to) vacancy or vacation relief; or
 - c. When layoff results from weather, breakdown, or other circumstances beyond the control of the Employer.
- 16.06 The Employer agrees to pay the medical and life insurance premiums for an Employee who is laid off for one (1) month after the month in which the Employee is laid off.
- 16.07 No new Seasonal Employee shall be hired until those Seasonal Employee laid off for a period not exceeding twenty-eight (28) weeks have been given an opportunity of recall.

ARTICLE 17: HOURS OF WORK

- 17.01 Regular hours of work are forty (40) hours per week divided into five (5) equal "workdays" between the hours of 5 AM and 11:59 PM.
- a. From May 1st to August 31st, Employees other than students will be scheduled normally from Monday to Friday, although alternate schedules may be established by agreement with the affected Employee(s).
 - b. From September 1st to April 30th, the Employer may for operational reasons (i.e., arena and rink operations) schedule Employees to a normal week other than Monday to Friday.
- 17.02 Employees will be entitled to one half hour unpaid meal breaks after every four (4) hour period. During every four (4) hour period, Employees will be entitled to a fifteen (15) minute paid break to be taken at their workplace or as otherwise permitted by management.
- 17.03 Employees must be given one (1) week notice if the Employer intends to cancel or change their regular schedule without agreement. If the Employee is not given one (1) week notice regarding the schedule change, the Employee shall be paid for all hours regularly scheduled and paid at the overtime rate for all hours worked outside of their regular schedule in the one (1) week period.

Seasonal Employee must be given forty-eight (48) hours' notice if the Employer intends to cancel or change their shift without agreement. If the Employee is not given forty-eight (48) hours' notice they shall be paid for the cancelled shifts and paid at the overtime rate for all hours worked outside of their regular shift in the forty-eight (48) hour period.

- 17.04 Call In - A "call in" occurs when an Employee is contacted by the Employer at a place other than the workplace to perform work, on less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice at times other than the Employee's regularly scheduled shift. Any Employee who receives a call in will be guaranteed three (3) hours at the overtime rate starting from the time the Employee clocks in. Time worked over the guaranteed three (3) hours will be paid at the overtime rate.

There shall be no pyramiding of the minimum call-in period in the event of two (2) or more call-ins.

17.05 Standby Duty

- a. As it deems necessary, the Employer may assign Employees in a classification to standby duty when they are not otherwise scheduled to work. Employees assigned to standby duty shall be paid a standby allowance of thirty dollars ($30) a day, subject to this Article. In order to be eligible for standby duty, an Employee must be able to report for work within forty-five (45) minutes under normal winter conditions (unless a longer response time is approved by the Employer).
- b. When assigned to standby duty, Employees must remain available by phone, must respond to calls, and must report promptly for work when called in.
- c. If due to illness, injury, or other valid reason, an Employee will be unable to report for work if called during a period of standby duty, they must give notice of the circumstances and must justify their unavailability for standby duty in the same manner as if they were not able to report for a scheduled shift of work. Such Employee shall notify the Employer before any day of standby duty on which they cannot report if called so that the Employer may assign an alternate person to standby duty if required. An Employee thus unable to work shall not be entitled to standby pay for each day on which they are unable to report if called
- d. Standby pay is not paid during an Employee's vacation.
- e. If contact cannot be made with an Employee who is on standby duty, within five (5) minutes, that Employee is ineligible for standby pay for that day. It is the Employee's responsibility to ensure that their contact information is kept current with the Employer so that they can be contacted when needed.
- f. If an Employee who is on standby duty fails to report to work when asked to do so or is not available to be contacted, a reasonable explanation is required. Failure to justify a failure to report from standby or failure to remain available for contact may be cause for disciplinary action.
- g. If called into work from standby duty, the normal call-in provisions of Article 17.04 will apply.

ARTICLE 18: OVERTIME

- 18.01 Time worked in addition to the regular eight-hour (8) shift shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1.5x) times the regular hourly rate. Full-time Employees may be granted time off in lieu of overtime. Seasonal Employees may be granted time off in lieu of overtime, to a maximum of one (1) week. Alternate arrangements may be made by mutual agreement of the Employer and Employee.
- 18.02 Overtime shall be distributed on an equitable basis among qualified Employees.
- 18.03 Banking of Overtime - If mutually agreed by the Employer and Employee, overtime may be banked in lieu of paid. Banking of hours shall be limited to an annual maximum of eighty (80) hours straight-time equivalent. Banked overtime must be used before the start of the winter maintenance program and if this cannot be done it will be paid out before year end. Bank time earned during winter maintenance at the end of a calendar year can be carried over and used before the start of the winter maintenance program the following year. Use of banked time shall be approved by the appropriate manager. The rights to bank overtime and to accumulate banked overtime under this provision have been agreed to in lieu of the right to overtime pay as established under the Employment Standards Act.
